

Department of Art Attendance Guidelines:

Revised 12/14/2022

For studio and lecture courses that meet twice per week:

Students are expected to attend every class, to arrive on time, and to be prepared to participate in all class presentations and activities. Each student is allowed three (3) absences during the semester, which should be saved for illness and emergencies that prevent them from attending class.

If a student is absent from this course over three (3) times they will not be eligible for a final grade above a B+.

If a student's absences in this course exceed four (4), they will not be eligible for a grade above a C+.

If a student's absences in this course exceed five (5), they will not be eligible for a grade above a D+.

Department of Art Attendance Guidelines:

Revised 12/14/2022

For studio and lecture courses that meet three times per week:

Students are expected to attend every class, to arrive on time, and to be prepared to participate in all class presentations and activities. Each student is allowed five (5) absences during the semester, which should be saved for illness and emergencies that prevent them from attending class.

If a student is absent from this course over five (5) times, they will not be eligible for a final grade above a B+.

If a student's absences in this course exceed six (6), they will not be eligible for a grade above a C+.

If a student's absences in this course exceed seven (7), they will not be eligible for a grade above a D+.