September 3rd, 2025

- I. CALL TO ORDER – 5:00 PM
- II. ROLL CALL
 - a. 6 President Cabinet members were present.
 - b. Absent: Vice President Amos, Director Lumu, Commissioner McCubbin and, Vice President Taylor.
 - c. Also present: Dr. Matt Daily, Assistant Vice President and Dean of Students.
- III. President, Sky Halter – President Halter welcomed members to the new year and expressed his excitement for the upcoming term. He shared plans for tailgates with the first tailgate being held on September 20th for the first home game, with hopes of setting up next to the Jungle. On September 27th, there will be a tailgate watch party at the ICCU Dome with free food for the first 150 attendees. The HEYSISU campaign is beginning to take off, aiming to host a monthly informal “Come Chill” event where students can hang out with ASISU members. Plans also include Instagram introductions to help students get to know the organization better. President Halter also took a moment to encourage members to attend Reed Gym Night tonight!
- IV. Vice President, Charlie Medema – Vice President Medema has started working with Theresa Brissette to gather an archive of all available ASISU records, including past bills and resolutions. He is also drafting bills that are expected to be ready for review within the next two to three weeks.
- V. Vice President of Idaho Falls, Brooke Taylor – Vice President Taylor absent.
- VI. Vice President of Meridian, Makayla Amos – Vice President Amos absent.
- VII. SAB Representative - Director, Braden Worley – Director Worley, who also serves as President of Greek Council and is a member of Kappa Sigma, reported on his role as SAB Director. SAB is preparing for its first BINGO of the semester on September 9, Bengal Wednesday on September 10, and the Foam Party on September 12. The recent paint party saw a strong turnout with only a couple of minor issues. There continues to be high excitement and engagement on campus for these events, and efforts are underway to explore opportunities for collaboration between ASISU and SAB.
- VIII. Pro Temp - Senate Pro Tempore position vacant.
- IX. Secretary, Eliana Madison – Secretary Madison shared that she will be out of town this weekend, so minutes and agendas will be sent out a bit later on Friday. She also reminded members that September timecards and checklists are due on Thursday, September 25, by 5:00 PM.

- X. Director of Finance, Hannah Burrell – Director Burrell shared that she has met with Theresa Brissett to discuss friendly amendments and voting on matched funding tonight during the finance committee, as well as proposing an amendment to the bylaws requiring advisors to attend a training.
- XI. Director of Public Relations, Mica Kankolongo – Director Kankolongo has been reviewing the social media account, and is beginning to focus on strategies to increase the Instagram following. She has created a content and posting schedule to promote ASISU and maintain consistent engagement, and she is looking to get more ASISU members involved in content creation.
- XII. Director of Community Relations, Kara Price – Director Price has been brainstorming ways to best facilitate ASISU’s relationship with the Bannock Youth Foundation. This initiative began last spring, and she is focused on continuing and strengthening that partnership.
- XIII. Director of Academic Affairs, Sofia Peach – Director Peach shared that the Laptop Owner Program is her main project for the year in her position as Director of Academic Affairs.
- XIV. Director of Student Affairs, Juliet Lumu – Director Lumu absent.
- XV. Election Commissioner, Josh McCubbin – Commissioner McCubbin's report was shared by Secretary Madison. This week, he has mainly been reviewing the old candidate packet and the previous election timeline in order to begin updating them. He also met with Vice President Medema to discuss his thoughts on last year’s election, including areas that could have been improved or clarified. Later this week, he plans to meet with President Halter to go over the same topics. In addition, he has been familiarizing himself with the updated Election Code.
- XVI. Deputy Election Commissioner - Deputy Election Commissioner position vacant.
