- V. CHAIR’S REPORT
  - a. Senator Yadav reminded members to reach out to their line items as well as to meet with their deans to distribute the ASISU scholarships. Senator Yadav shared that only 12% of clubs currently hold 50% of all club funding amounts. Keeping this in mind, when we approve club funding we should consider clubs existing funding. To fix this we can request a balance sheet of from clubs to determine what funding they have out of incentive points, donations to determine what funding they can receive. We can utilize this system to do our job more critically.
- VI. ANNOUNCEMENTS & CORRESPONDENCE
  - a. Kinematica Club, Kyler Bingham and Shaidal Das
    - i. The Kinematica Club is a fairly new club on campus. The club is currently working on building a fully functional dinosaur for the Idaho Museum of Natural History. The museum has provided $3,000 for this project, the club is requesting additional funding for robotic features as well as publication for everyone who worked on the project. The project will be continuously displayed in the museum and used in presentations around the country. Individuals who have worked on the project will get publicized for their participation.
