

Idaho Museum of Natural History

Be the spark!

Values

Curiosity

A strong desire to always search for knowledge

Authenticity

Dedicated to the real world and true to ourselves

Respect

Commitment to the protecting of natural history

Inspiration

Always reaching out to create extraordinary experiences

Mission

Inspire appreciation and curiosity for Idaho's natural history through its exploration and preservation.

Vision

To shape the future by understanding Idaho's natural history and creating unforgettable educational experiences.

How We Get There

Demonstrate the IMNH's essential value

Increase our Museum's audience and engagement with customers, collaborators and partners to demonstrate the essential value of IMNH.

Build capacity to support sustainable growth

Annual giving gifts are used for day-to-day operations and other budgetary needs.

Serve a statewide mission for education and research

By 2024, IMNH will increase its geographic reach and participation to include all of Idaho to more effectively respond to the education and research needs.