Volunteers Needed!

Bengal Visit Day is back! ISU needs student volunteers to help with this year's Bengal Visit Day, which invites potential students and their families to visit campus for the day and enjoy activities.

You can volunteer for part of the day or all of it, and in exchange for your help, you'll receive a t-shirt and a sweatshirt to wear on the day of the event.

Visit the link to sign up to volunteer:

College of Business Sales Competition

The College of Business is hosting a sales competition. Come join, where you'll be partnered with another competitor and given the chance to come up with a product or service to sell.

Guest judges will be deciding the winners of up to $1000.

For more information, contact John Ney @neyjohn@isu.edu. To sign up for the competition, contact Tanya Betty @tanyabetty@isu.edu.

MGT 4485

Alex Bollinger will be teaching a fun, interactive class in Fall 2022 that will implement the Pixar collaborative model to write a book as a class on the Idaho Museum of Natural History.

This is a great chance to get honors credits and co-author a book. All majors are welcome, and there are no prerequisites.

Email Dr. Bollinger @alexbollinger@isu.edu for more details!

If You Attended the GM Event...

If you attended the General Motors event, there was not a QR code at the time for you to scan and check-in to get credit for attending your honors event each semester. Send an email to UHP President Kaden Lee at kadenlee@isu.edu and let him know you were at the event. He will record your attendance.

Floats and Votes

Honors Family,

As we quickly approach the end of the year, we plan on holding our annual club elections at the end of April, beginning with Floats and Votes on April 22nd at 5pm where all candidates are expected to give a speech, followed by a trip to cadet field, where there will be rootbeer floats and activities. To that end, the application to run for a club office is now open, and will close on April 16th at 11:59pm. All Honors students are eligible to run for officer positions as long as they are in good standing with the club (i.e. have attended an event every semester). The following are the position descriptions for club officers, and the application can be accessed at <https://forms.gle/mScLajLgF9bUdQAN6>.

President:

1. To preside at all meetings of the UHP Club.
2. To enforce the Constitution, By-Laws, and other regulations of the UHP Club.
3. To appoint sub-committee heads.
4. To recommend to the UHP Club the probation or dismissal of any members not performing their duties.
5. To call special meetings.
6. To serve as a student representative for the University Honors Program (Bi-Annual Honors Meetings attendance is mandatory).
7. To Authorize expenditures not requiring membership vote (less than $1000)

Vice President:

- To preside at all meetings of the UHP Club in the absence of the President.
- To enforce the Constitution, By-Laws, and other regulations of the UHP Club.
- To appoint sub-committee heads in the absence of the President.
- To recommend to the UHP Club the probation or dismissal of any members not performing their duties in the absence of the President.
- To call special meetings in the absence of the President.
- To serve as a student representative for the University Honors Program in the absence of the President (Bi-Annual Honors Meetings attendance is mandatory).
- To authorize expenditures not requiring membership vote in the absence of the president (less than $1000).
- To assist all committees and keep the president informed of their progress.
- To serve as parliamentarian (be knowledgeable of Roberts rules of order).

Secretary:

1. To ensure that a list of goals for each subcommittee be on file in the Honors office and the Involvement Center.
2. To keep a permanent record of all minutes and committee reports for the UHP Club.
3. To keep an accurate and alphabetical roster of all members of the UHP Club eligible to vote.
