Chem Club Demo Show

Have you ever wondered about the chemistry behind things that melt, glow, ignite, and explode? Are you a pyromaniac at heart, or a sucker for things that go boom? If so, you're invited to ISU Chemistry Club's Chemistry Demo Show on Oct. 20 at 6:30 PM in the PSC 140 lecture hall. The show illustrates the science behind extreme chemical reactions, with live demonstrations of the kind of don't-try-this-at-home stuff you've always wanted to see in real life. There are drawings to win free ISU swag, nerdy stickers, and a liquid nitrogen ice cream social afterward with students and Chemistry faculty from 7:30 to 8 PM. Wear your Halloween costume - the best-dressed audience member just might get a special prize!

Book Panel

Book panel with James Risen, October 20, 6-8 pm at the Bilyeu Theatre in Frazier Hall. Risen and other panelists will be discussing the New York Times Bestseller "The Last Honest Man." In this "gripping, spectacular piece of reporting (Ken Burns), a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist examines Senator Frank Church, the man at the center of numerous investigations into the abuses of power within the American government.
