BAHM RSVP

It is that time of the semester for the Bi-Annual Honors Meeting (BAHM) - We are excited to see all of you there! Please click this link to register for BAHM by Friday, March 1st.

Remember, all Honors students must attend one of the three possible BAHM sessions each semester in order to remain eligible for UHP scholarships, priority registration, and other program benefits. If you know that you won't be able to attend due to an official conflict (e.g. a conference, athletic travel), please reach out to set up an alternate plan.

Please respond to this email or email Honors Faculty/Advisor Conner Suddick (connersuddick@isu.edu) with any questions or concerns.

Please Register by: Friday March 1st

IASE/ICE Joint Symposium

Theme: Sustainability and Earth's Climate

This conference is in Pocatello in the SUB. It is completely free and open to all disciplines that relate to the topic.

The Organizing Committee invites abstract submissions for papers and posters to be presented at the 2024 IASE/ICE Joint Symposium. Submissions on any science or engineering topic of interest to citizens in the Intermountain area are encouraged from students at all levels, educators, and others involved in research or STEM activities related to the Region.

Those wishing to present (either posters or papers) at the symposium should follow the Abstract Instructions at <https://IASE.website>. Abstracts are due by NOON Monday, March 18, 2024, and should be submitted online via the link at: <https://IASE.website>. Please submit early to aid in conference planning. Please see flyer for more details.

QPR Training

The Institute of Rural Health is offering a free suicide intervention course that teaches a three step plan for how to help save someone in a suicide crisis. QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) is a simple and foundational course that will teach you the principles of intervention. This course is offered to anyone in the community for free and will take place on February 29th at 6pm on ISU campus. For information on how to register, scan the QR code on the flyer (see attached).

Summer Research Opportunities

Honors Student, Jaden Palmer, put together a slideshow of summer research opportunities. Deadlines are fast approaching so please take a look and see what you can be a part of!

Summer Research Opportunities Slideshow

Also, there is a database from the University Illinois that helps connect students to summer research opportunities. Explore that database here!

URCA Editors Needed

URCA, (The NCHC Journal of Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity) is the official undergraduate journal of the National Collegiate Honors Council. Each year, the journal seeks to recruit a small number of undergraduate students from across the United States to contribute to our editorial process. Click here for more information.

Deadline March 1, 2024

An Opportuni-Tea

We are looking for student volunteers on Friday, April 5th and Saturday, April 6th to support An Opportuni-Tea. This is the largest fundraiser of the year for Honors and the funds impact scholarships and programmatic events in the University Honors Program. Volunteering at the event counts as civic engagement.

Please fill out this volunteer form to sign up.

Creative Submissions Wanted!

We would like to invite Honors students to donate original creative work to be auctioned in the silent auction for An Opportuni-Tea. Donated work could be anything you've created - painting, yarn art, woodworking, ceramics, sculpture, jewelry, photography, etc. The options are endless. Click here to see previous submissions.

Your creative work doesn't have to be fully complete in order to let us know that you are interested in submitting a donation, as long as the donated item is complete and submitted to Jacob Andrysiak by Friday, March 8, 2024. If you'd like to donate creative work, please complete this form so we can communicate with you throughout the planning process.
